Place your advertisement in the space provided below. Use one character per square. Commas, dashes, periods and other punctuation count toward the limit of 13 characters per line. Two lines comprise one frame. A frame is the message that can be displayed on the sign at any one time. Each frame is generally displayed for approximately two seconds (The display time can be increased if a business owner requests, your cost will increase correspondingly). Business ads are made up of several frames, see sample on reverse side.
